

Yome Kippur - The Day of Atonement

The Congregation Reads the Bold

Female Leader lights Festival Candles.

After Kindling the Festival Lights

Baruch atah YHWH, Elochenu Melach ha-olam, asher kidshanu b'mitzvotav uv'dahm Y'shua haMoshiach, v'tsivanu, l'hadleek naer shel Yom haKippurim.

Blessed are You, YHWH our Elohim, King of the universe, Who has sanctified us with his commandments and in the blood of Y'shua the Messiah, and commanded us to kindle the lights of the Day of Atonement.

Baruch atah YHWH, Elochenu Melach ha-olam, she-he-cheyanu, v'keey'manu, v'higee'anu, la-z'man ha-zeh.

Blessed are You, YHWH our Elohim, King of the universe, Who has kept us in life, and preserved us, and enabled us to reach this time.

May we follow the instruction of Y'shua haMoshiach, Who said, "Again you have heard that it has been said to those of old, 'You will not swear falsely, but will fulfill your vows to YHWH.' But I say to you, do not swear at all; neither by the sky, for it is Elohim's throne; nor by the earth, for it is His footstool; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the Great King. Nor will you swear by your head, because you cannot make one hair white or black. But let your 'Yes' be 'Yes' and your 'No' 'No', for whatever is more than these is from the evil one." (Matthew 5:33-37)

Prayers

O YHWH our Elohim and Elohim of our fathers, we acknowledge to You that we are sinners. We have acted treasonably, aggressively and slanderously; We have acted brazenly, viciously and fraudulently; We have acted willfully, scornfully and obstinately; We have acted perniciously, disdainfully and erratically. Turning away from Your good precepts and laws has not profited us. You are just in all that has come upon us; You dealt truthfully, but we have acted wickedly. O You Who dwells on high, what can we say to You? You who are in the sky, what can we declare in Your presence? You know whatever is open or hidden. You know the mysteries of the universe and the dark secrets of every living soul. You search all the inmost chambers of the conscience of humankind; nothing escapes You, nothing is hidden from Your sight. We thank You YHWH that You provided atonement for all our transgressions through the sacrifice of Y'shua haMoshiach, our Salvation.

{A minute of silence for personal repentance.}

We thank You for Your atonement, O Elohim of forgiveness. Forgive us the sins for which the early courts would inflict four kinds of death penalty: stoning, burning, beheading, or strangling. Forgive us the breach of positive commands and the breach of negative commands, whether or not they involve an act, whether or not they are known to us. The sins known to us we have already acknowledged to You; and those that are not known to us are indeed well-known to You, as it is said: "What is hidden belongs to the YHWH Elohim, but what is known concerns us and our children forever, that we may observe all the commands of this Torah." You are the Forgiver of Israel, our Pardoner in every generation, and besides You we have no King to pardon and forgive our sins.

O YHWH, open my lips that my mouth might declare Your praise. Blessed are You, O YHWH our Elohim, and Elohim of our fathers; Elohim of Abraham, Elohim of Isaac and Elohim of Jacob; Great, Mighty and Revered Elohim, Who bestows loving kindness, and are Master of all things, Who graciously brought the Redeemer, Y'shua haMoshiach, to provide our atonement; and will graciously Save Israel for Your Holy Name's sake. We thank You for life, O King Who delights in life; we thank You for inscribing us in the Lamb's Book of Life, for the sake of Y'shua the Lamb of Elohim, Who takes away our sins.

Our Elohim and Elohim of our fathers, may the remembrance of Messiah the Son of David Your servant ascend and come and be accepted before You for deliverance and happiness, for grace, kindness and mercy, for life and peace on this Day of Atonement. Remember us this day, O YHWH our Elohim, for happiness; be mindful of us for blessing.

Glorified and sanctified be Elohim's great Name throughout the world, that He has created according to His will. May He establish His kingdom in your lifetime and during your days, and within the life of the entire house of Israel, speedily and soon; and say Amein.

Amein!

May His great Name be blessed forever and to all eternity. Blessed and praised, glorified and exalted, extolled and honored, adored and lauded be the Name of the Holy One, blessed be He, beyond all blessings and hymns, praises and consolations that are ever spoken in the world; and say, Amein.

Amein!

May there be abundant peace from the sky, and life, for us and for all Israel; and say, Amein.

Amein!

He who creates peace in His celestial heights, may He create peace for us and for all Israel; and say, Amein.

Amein!

Adon Olam (by a dramatic new reader)

YHWH of the world, King supreme before all creation came to be.

When by His will all things were wrought the name of our King was first made known.

And when this age will cease to be He still will reign in majesty.

He was, He is, and He will be— all glorious eternally.

Incomparable, YHWH is One; no other can His nature share.

Without beginning, without an end, unto Him, all strength and majesty.

He is my living Elohim who saves. My rock when grief or sorrows fall.

My banner and my refuge strong, my cup of life whene'er I call.

And in His hand I place my soul both when I sleep and when I wake,

And with my soul and body too Elohim is with me there is no fear.

Closing Prayer

Cleanse us O YHWH through our fast, and prepare our hearts for the days to come, in Y'shua's Holy Name. Amein.

Amein!
